

Social Studies Fifth Grade

Foundations of national identity

Origins

civic ideals

freedom

rule of law

equality

civility

cooperation

respect

responsibility

civic participation

individual rights

Stamp Act

U.S. Constitution

Bill of Rights

Articles of Confederation

Declaration of Independence historical documents

historical artifacts

cartoons

artwork

charts

graphs

KEY:

Unifying Theme

Organizing Concept

Supporting Concept

Personal Financial Literacy

Explicit Connection

Supporting Connection

Movement and settlement

exploration

Columbian Exchange

cultural patterns

Cooperation and conflict

cultural interactions

military development

Structures and institutions three branches of government products and services of financial institutions checking accounts

savings accounts

investments

loans

government and market structures capitalism

influence on financial institutions process for citizenship

Social Studies Processes

- * Finding points of view
- * Making inferences and predictions
- * Gathering data
- * Using geographical tools