

Reading, Writing and Communicating Eighth Grade

Evaluate and organize a variety of information and multiple perspectives to reach the desired outcome

Demonstrate use and purpose of appropriate information

Discriminate and select appropriate information

Examine gathered information evaluate analyze

recognize sequence

variety of mediums

argument

bias

relationships

author's use of language to influence reader function of text to influence understanding organization

product

presentation

word choice to achieve desired effect

appropriate audience

appropriate audience

use precise words and phrases to capture action

relevant/irrelevant information multiple perspectives of self and others

point of view

support a claim

show cause and effect

offer comparisons

drawing evidence

interpretation

influence of text complexity on understanding

clarify for understanding

KEY:

Unifying Theme

Organizing Concept

Supporting Concept